DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-15 are allowed.

Claims 1-15 are allowable over the prior art of record, none of the prior art whether together singularly or in combination to teach the claimed combination as recited.

As to claim 1-4, the closest reference “Creating Electronic Documents that Interact with Diagnostic Software for On-Site Service” by Harmison does not disclose or suggest the improvement of the instant application comprises the step of generating a configuration log for a multi-modular device that includes entries of an identity of a module indicating introduction or removal of that module for merging the event of that introduction with the configuration log in order to delineate and present the integrated log uniquely to identify the entries corresponding to the selected configuration.

Referring to claims 5-11, Harmison does not disclose or suggest the improvement of the instant application comprises the step of providing and maintaining a configuration log indicative of respective configuration changes in a modular device that includes error logs and/or log that indicating introduction or removal of the swappable module that records operational events and time of occurrence of the events for generating an integrated log in order to demarcate the operational events according to a selected configuration based on the configuration log and error logs.

As to claims 12-15, Harmison does not disclose or suggest the improvement of the instant application comprises the steps of storing entries corresponding to service related events in a modular device and generating a second set of entries in response to an addition, deletion, or repositioning of the modules for accessing and outputting an integrated log displaying selected operational events according to a given configuration.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
